1 About this website

This website is operated by Postbiota, a trade name of WW Health Technology B.V., registered with the Netherlands Chamber of Commerce under number 59393475. By using this website you accept the terms of this disclaimer.

2 Intended audience

The information on this website is intended for business professionals, such as manufacturers, formulators and brand owners in the food, food supplement, animal feed and skincare industries. It is not intended for consumers.

Nothing on this website is medical or veterinary advice. It does not replace the advice of a doctor, veterinarian or other qualified professional.

3 Product information

Product descriptions on this website are general and for information only. Binding specifications are those stated in the product specification, datasheet or certificate of analysis we provide with an offer or delivery.

Formats that are marked as in development may still change in composition, specifications and availability. Product details, names and availability can also differ from country to country.

4 Regulatory status and claims

The regulatory status of an ingredient depends on the country and on the application, such as food, food supplements, animal feed or cosmetics. Customers are responsible for making sure that their finished products comply with the laws of every market in which they are sold, including rules on composition, labelling, claims and authorisations.

The information on this website is not an authorised health claim under Regulation (EC) No 1924/2006 or comparable legislation in other jurisdictions. It may not be used as such in communication to consumers. We are happy to support our customers with the documentation they need for their own regulatory assessment.

5 Scientific information

This website summarises scientific literature and our own research, including exploratory studies. Results were obtained under specific study conditions and cannot be read as proof of a particular effect of a finished product, or as a clinical outcome. For full methods and results, please refer to the original publications or contact us.

6 Liability

We take great care in compiling and maintaining the information on this website. Even so, we cannot guarantee that it is always complete, accurate or up to date. The information may be changed at any time without notice.

To the extent permitted by law, we accept no liability for any damage resulting from the use of this website or of the information on it, or from the temporary unavailability of the website. This does not limit any liability that cannot be excluded by law.

7 Offers and supply

The information on this website is not an offer. Quotations, prices and delivery terms are only binding once confirmed in writing. Every supply is governed by the written agreement between you and us and our general terms and conditions of sale (postbiota.com).

8 Third-party websites

This website may contain links to websites of third parties, such as scientific publishers. We have no control over the content of those websites and are not responsible for it. A link does not mean that we endorse the website or its content.

9 Intellectual property

All content on this website, including texts, images, graphics, logos and the Postbiota name, is protected by intellectual property rights and belongs to WW Health Technology B.V. or its licensors. You may not copy, publish or use this content for commercial purposes without our prior written permission.

You are welcome to share links to this website and to print or save pages for your own internal evaluation.

10 Changes and applicable law

We may change this disclaimer at any time. The version published on this page applies.

This disclaimer and the use of this website are governed by Dutch law. Any disputes will be submitted exclusively to the competent court in the Netherlands.
